Red Pincers In Hanoi Delta Drawn Tighter

French Beat Off Savage Attack By Vietminh Troops

SAIGON, Indochina, July 9 (AP) — French mobile units armed with howitzers routed Vietminh regulars 20 miles south of Hanoi today after hours of savage fighting. But a tightening north-south Communist pincer menaced three other French strongholds on the shrunken Red River Delta defense perimeter.

The French command said 108 out of 300 Red-led Vietminh soldiers were killed in the clash at Bao Thon, a village 15 miles north of Phu Ly junction on the road to Hanoi. French losses were not disclosed. Only a week ago French troops abandoned Phu Ly in the teeth of a Vietminh attack.

While the battle raged at Bao Thon, Red forces were busy pounding at French posts near Son Tay, 20 miles northwest of Hanoi, and Phu Yen, 15 miles almost due north. Vietnamese troops suffered appreciable losses at both garrisons.

In the hours before dawn, the Vietminh let loose harassing attacks on the French citadel of Bac Dinh, 15 miles northeast of Hanoi.

(Peiping radio claimed Friday French forces have retreated from a "military subsector" on Highway 22 in the delta, including the French post at Van Dinh, 21 miles south of Hanoi.)

Communist Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's stepped-up assault came less than a day after Gen. Paul Ely, French commander in Indochina, pledged an all out stand to save the north Viet Nam war capital.

Communist propaganda leaflets in the Vietnamese language, showed on Hanoi in a mounting war of nerves, have been warning Hanoi residents a major offensive on the city would come within the next week. Some leaflets said D-Day would be Wednesday, French Bastille Day. Others pointed to July 17.

The Vietminh have massed three divisions southwest of Hanoi and another three along the northern borders of the delta. Military observers here think the rebels are most likely to strike east of Hanoi to cut the road link between Hanoi and the support of Haiphong.

In another aspect of the Indochina war, a picture of American sources here said Premier Pierre Mendes-France's July 20 deadline holding up the replacement of 265 U.S. Air Force technicians at Tourane air base in central Viet Nam.

The technicians, servicing and overhauling American-supplied B26 bombers and C47 transport planes, were scheduled to leave by the end of this month. But neither the French nor American authorities were willing to settle pending arrangements with private American firm to handle the servicing of planes until they know whether air force needs in Indochina will be on a peacetime or renewed war basis.

Vietminh rebel leader Ho Chi Minh has offered "leniency" to Vietnamese troops and French soldiers who go over to the Communists in Indochina, Peiping radio reported Friday.

Truman At Home After 20 Days In A Hospital

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., July 9 (AP) — Harry S. Truman "feeling fine," came home today from the hospital where he spent 20 days as a surgical patient.

The former president made an unheralded departure from Research Hospital in Kansas City at 5:30 a.m., stepped into the family car and was driven here, accompanied only by Mrs. Truman and Mike Westwood, an Independence policeman.

Mrs. Truman said he had breakfast on the porch at the home and then went to bed. She added his only comment was: "It's good to be home. I'm feeling fine."

Truman underwent an emergency operation for removal of his gall bladder and appendix June 20. Physicians had expected him to be in the hospital only 10 days, but his stay was prolonged by hypersensitivity to certain post-operative drugs.

There was no indication when Truman would resume his normal activities.

RESCUE MAN WEDGED INSIDE YACHT CLUB CHIMNEY — Joseph Laore, 21, is removed from the chimney of the Chicago Yacht Club at the Monroe Street harbor on Lake Michigan early Friday. Police and firemen broke a hole in the base of the 16-foot-high chimney to reach Laore, who told police that he had been stripped of his clothes and beaten by four Negroes after midnight. He apparently had been carried to the roof of the one-story building and dropped feet first into the chimney. He is in an oxygen tent in a hospital. (AP Wirephoto)

Kennon Vetoes 44 Bills, Including $6,596,743 In Special Appropriations

BATON ROUGE, July 9 (AP) — Gov. Robert Kennon has vetoed 44 bills including special appropriations totaling $6,596,743 and a measure authorizing emergency welfare relief, the secretary of state's office said today.

480 Bills Signed By Governor In Arduous Session

BATON ROUGE, July 9 (AP) — Gov. Robert Kennon has signed some 480 bills, including controversial appropriations to the Jefferson Lake Sulphur Co. and to refund slot machine owners for state taxes, the secretary of state announced today.

The governor okayed a $897,465 grant to the Jefferson Lake Sulphur Co. to pay a judgment held against the state and approved a $122,000 sum to refund slot machine owners for taxes paid on slot machines smashed by the state in gambling raids.

Other measures approved in a marathon of signatures and vetoes which cleared all bills awaiting governmental action included:

1. Increase allocation of tobacco tax to $100,000, Baton Rouge and New Orleans 50 cents per person.
2. Increase to two per cent the amount retailers retain for collection of the state sales tax.
3. Authorize the board of directors of Confederate Memorial Medical Center at Shreveport to sell the old charity hospital building to the city and take the funds from the sale and a $50,000 appropriation to construct a state office building in Shreveport.
4. Provide for state paying all election costs in parishes whose general fund receipts, exclusive of gas tax and federal funds, are less than $55,000 yearly.
5. Allot the 101st seat in the House of Representatives allowed by the constitution to Jefferson Parish.

The Legislature gave final passage to a record number of bills in its 1954 session—816. The list included 81 constitutional amendments.

In 1952, the Legislature passed a total of 827 bills, of which 31 were constitutional amendments and 593 signed into law by the governor.

The governor has signed 733 measures into law this session, vetoed 44 measures and partially vetoed two others.

A total of 1658 bills were introduced in the 1954 session, four more than in 1952. A total of 128 constitutional amendments were offered and 31 finally passed for the approval of the voters in the November general election.

The Jefferson Lake appropriation repays the company for a trespass committed by the Jefferson Island Salt Mining Co. in 1931. The state sued Jefferson Island, because Jefferson Lake was mining sulphur on a state lease, and received a 1.5 million dollar judgment in 1936.

Under the lease, Jefferson Lake was entitled to 75ths of the settlement, but agreed to settle for $897,465.

Senate Committee Votes Against Ike's Farm Bill

Wants Renewal Of Rigid Farm Price Supports

Threat Of Veto By President Ignored; Ballot Is 13 To 2

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP) — President Eisenhower lost a round today in his fight for flexible farm price supports. The Senate Agriculture Committee voted 13-2 to send to the Senate floor a bill calling for another year of rigid supports at 90 per cent of parity.

The measure also varies sharply from the President's ideas in other respects, and his supporters are counting on the Senate to alter it.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), chairman of the Agriculture Committee, said he voted to send the bill to the Senate "with firm intentions of knocking out several provisions on the Senate floor."

"Unless we can work out a bill acceptable to President Eisenhower then there will be no farm legislation," Aiken said, expressing confidence that the President would use a veto if necessary.

Two senators, Williams (R-Del.) and Anderson (D-N.Y.), voted against turning the bill loose, because they are so opposed to some of its provisions.

Because of the numerous split-decisions within the committee on key provisions, Aiken said the bill probably would not be ready for the Senate until early next week.

"We may have several minority or separate reports to file on the numerous sections," he explained. "I expect debate to start next Thursday."

Aiken said he expects administration supporters in the Senate to duplicate the victory scored in the House on flexible farm supports over the opposition of a majority of the House Agriculture Committee.

Cambodia Warns Communists In Geneva Meeting

GENEVA, July 9 (AP) — Cambodian Delegate Sam Sary today bluntly told the Communists his country would seek foreign military help if it felt its independence menaced.

The Cambodian statement, made to the nine-party Indochina conference as reported by Western sources, was a notice to both sides that Cambodia still wants freedom to join the projected Southeast Asia pact (SEATO). It was also a rebuff to Red proposals for the neutralization of Cambodia.

His statement followed one from Red Chinese Delegate Li Ke-Nung who asserted that the exclusion of foreign troops and bases from both Laos and Cambodia was an "essential condition" for settlement of the eight-year-long Indochinese conflict.

The Cambodian delegate said his country was willing to accept such a prohibition for the sake of peace. But such limitations on Cambodia's sovereignty, he said, "would not be valid if the independence of Cambodia is threatened."

He also asserted that Cambodia is determined to get its arms and defensive military equipment where it chooses—an obvious reference to the West.

At the present time there are no foreign troops in Cambodia. In Laos, under the terms of a French-Laoian treaty, the military command is a joint one and the French hold some bases.

The Red Chinese delegate said the French should get out of Laos as well.

Sen. Ferguson Renews Attack On Truman Policies

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP) — Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), answering Democratic attacks on Republican foreign policy, said Friday the United States is not a "world-wide Mr. Fixit" who can be blamed for every free world "failure."

Ferguson also defended GOP attacks on past Democratic policies. He called them "reasoned" efforts to find out past errors in order to avoid new mistakes.

The chairman of the Senate GOP Policy committee said Republicans were not questioning the "motives" of Democratic policies "but the methods and, of course, the sorry results."

"In seven short years, such policies contributed to the loss of 600 million persons to communism, helped lead us inexorably into the Korean war and encouraged Red China to fan the flames of the Indo-China conflict," he declared.

Ferguson, who is also a member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, replied in a statement and in a Senate speech to Thursday's attack on GOP foreign policy by Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.).

Mansfield charged that the administration, by attending the Geneva conference, handed communism a major victory. He said Geneva elevated the Chinese Reds to "international stature" and let them achieve a "firm and perhaps decisive foothold in southeast Asia."

Ferguson said it was "absurd" to blame Geneva for France's present unwillingness to talk peace in Indo-China. He said the French were determined to talk peace and would have done so anyway.

"We shall proffer proof to show that Arbenz and Martinez were the authors of common crimes," he said.

Undersecretary Asencio said an unofficial list furnished by the Mexican Embassy indicated 300 refugees housed there include Arbenz, his wife and two children; former Foreign Minister Guillermo Toriello; and Jose Manuel Fortuny, regarded as Guatemala's leading Communist during the Arbenz government.

A close guard has been clamped around those embassies here giving asylum to political refugees. In all, the refugees now hiding out in embassies total about 900.

The accident occurred about 10 p.m. The wreckage of one plane was found shortly afterwards, but that of the second not until Friday. Two men were aboard each plane.

Names of two of the four dead were made public. They were 2nd Lt. Edward R. Cavanagh, 25, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Aviation Cadet John P. Street, 22, Liverpool, W. Va.

Guzman Holed Up In Embassy Military Junta Studies Mexican Request To Let Ousted President Leave

GUATEMALA, July 9 (AP) — Guatemala's ruling junta said today it is studying a formal Mexican request to let leftist ex-President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman go into exile on a safe conduct permit.

However, his release from the Mexican Embassy here under those conditions appeared unlikely in the light of a decision that political refugees accused of common crimes will not be allowed to get away.

Official statements also indicated Arbenz may be kept in Guatemala and possibly punished if he elects to leave the embassy. He took refuge there June 27 under the traditional right of sanctuary after being removed as president.

Foreign Undersecretary Julio Asencio commented only that a Mexican memorandum on Arbenz was received last night and is still under consideration.

Mexico has not yet recognized the governing Guatemalan junta under Col. Carlos Castillo Armas.

The junta has charged that Arbenz and Maj. Alfonso Martinez, an official of the Red-backed Arbenz regime, engineered the 1949 murder of the armed forces chief, Col. Francisco Arana, to clear the way for Arbenz to come to power. Indictments against the two are reported pending.

"Our determination in general is not to allow the departure of any refugee guilty of common crimes," Castillo Armas declared today in an interview.

"We shall proffer proof to show that Arbenz and Martinez were the authors of common crimes," he said.

Undersecretary Asencio said an unofficial list furnished by the Mexican Embassy indicated 300 refugees housed there include Arbenz, his wife and two children; former Foreign Minister Guillermo Toriello; and Jose Manuel Fortuny, regarded as Guatemala's leading Communist during the Arbenz government.

A close guard has been clamped around those embassies here giving asylum to political refugees. In all, the refugees now hiding out in embassies total about 900.

Woman Fined For Beating Husband

MACON, Ga., July 9 (AP) — A 265-pound woman drew a $52 fine or 50 days in jail in Recorder's Court today for tying her sleeping husband to the bed and lashing him with a rubber hose.

Mrs. Lillian Barr, 32, told the court her husband, Will Barr, "needed a good beating and I was giving it to him." Will exhibited several welts on his back and legs.

Officers called to the Barr home about 10 p.m. Thursday said they saw Lillian holding the hose in one hand and a knife in the other. Will was tied hand and foot to the bed with twine while he slept.

Coroner Seeks Key Witness In Thorne Inquiry

Murder Theory In Death Of Heir To Fortune Is Held

CHICAGO, July 9 (AP) — The mystery of Montgomery Ward Thorne's death deepened today when four of the young mail order heir's friends told police they did not know that he ever used narcotics.

Coroner Walter E. McCarron, leaning toward the theory of foul play, announced he would search for a key witness—"The person who probably was with him at the time of death."

Thorne's death has been officially attributed to a lethal combination of narcotics, a sleeping drug, and beverage and wood alcohol that suppressed his breathing.

Dr. Harry G. Leon, pathologist who compiled the medical report, called the death "unnatural." He said there were indications of a second party injected morphine or something else into Thorne's veins shortly before his death.

Dr. Leon said Thorne's arms bore none of the scars or acne pitings usually found on the skin of regular narcotics users. However, there were nine needle marks. Two vein punctures, so fresh they still oozed, were in Thorne's right arm. He was right-handed.

However, Chief of Detectives John O'Malley says that so far, at least, there is no evidence of crime except the supplying of narcotics.

Police, searching for the source of a small supply found in Thorne's room, questioned four of his male companions, Roger Stone, Dennis Annis, and William Wright, all of Chicago, and Sam (Skipper) Taylor of Lake Geneva, Wis.

O'Malley said they all told him that they never heard of Thorne using dope.

Thorne's sweetheart, Maureen Ragen, 18, and others among his acquaintances have voiced a similar lack of knowledge of any such addiction on Thorne's part.

Thorne, 20, was found dead June 19 in his $75 a month room on Chicago's near North Side. Nine days earlier he had rewritten his will to leave three-quarters of his nearly two million dollar estate to Maureen and her mother, Allen.

His mother, who was sole beneficiary in his original will, was cut down to a one-eighth share.

The legal battle over the estate will open today in Probate Court. Thorne's mother, Maureen, failed to show up and her attorney reported her ill and in need of two weeks rest.

Texarkana Hit By Severe Storm; Damage Heavy

TEXARKANA, Ark., July 9 (AP) — Texarkana tonight was hit by a severe storm which left a trail of destruction and a town of 10,000 people without power or telephone service.

The Texas portion of the city seemed the worst hit, although a complete appraisal of the damage was not available. Heavy rain and lightning lashed the city for about half an hour.

The Texarkana Gazette reported power failures, a 3.5 ft. wind gust, local telephones and electrical service still were out at 8 p.m.

At least one hospital was without power and reporters said the city's water supply was cut off. There were no operations in progress at the time of the storm.

The Texarkana newspaper reported the city was struck by high winds, followed by a heavy downpour rain streaked with hail.

Winnsboro Man Survives Shock Of 7,600 Volts

WINNSBORO, July 9 (Special)—A Winnsboro line man for the Northeast Louisiana Power Cooperative today miraculously survived a jolt by 7,600 volts of electricity, and a 30-foot fall to the ground where he landed on his head.

Doctors at Rogers' clinic in Winnsboro reported that Neil D. Womble, Jr., 25, was "resting comfortably" and was in a greatly improved condition tonight.

Womble, who has been an employee of the company for the last four years, was riding on top of a house which was being moved from the Baskin-Delhi Road into the town of Delhi. He was accompanied on the roof by W. H. McCain, Jr., and their job was to clear power lines as the house moved under them.

At approximately 2 p.m., Womble accidentally came in contact with the 7,600 volt line, his foot slipped, and the wire fell across his left arm, side and leg. He fell from the house, which was being taken to Delhi on a huge trailer, and landed on the ground 30 feet below on his head.

For a considerable time, Womble remained unconscious, but has now regained consciousness. His injuries include a bad cut on the head, and burns on his body where the line hit him. He was first treated at the Delhi clinic, and later removed to the Rogers' Clinic, in Winnsboro.

Ike Plays Golf

WASHINGTON, July 9 (UP)—President Eisenhower played golf Friday at Burning Tree Club. One of his golfing companions was Billy Joe Patton, top amateur golfer from Morganton, N. C.

WASHINGTON, July 9 (UP)—The Senate tonight passed and sent to conference with the House an $37 million dollar military construction bill after turning down a proposed $44,640,000 cut.

Final passage was by voice vote. Previously the Senate rejected 63-12 an amendment of Sen. Long (D-La.) to cut out authorizations for almost 45 million dollars worth of Army barracks projects at camps in all parts of the country.

The bill would authorize spending for more than 300 projects throughout the nation and abroad. Included are 229 million for the Army, 209 million for the Navy, and 399 million for the Air Force. A large part of the money is for secret projects.

The Senate adopted an amendment of Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) providing that five million dollars of the authorizations in the bill for barracks shall be spent on rehabilitation of old quarters instead of new construction.

The Senate also defeated 55-13 a Long amendment to recreate the $14,800-a-year post of director of installations in the Defense Department.

Franklin Parish Crops Are Aided By Precipitation

WINNSBORO, July 9 (Special)—G. A. Lamo, county agent in Franklin parish, said tonight that approximately 1 1/2 inches of rain had fallen in the southeast and central and northwest portions of Franklin parish, bringing much needed relief to parched crops.

He said that everything had stopped growing, but the rain gives them a new lease on life, and prospects for good crops are much improved. Some of the early corn had already "burned up," he said, and was "beyond recovery." However, the rains helped all of the late corn, he said.

The southwest and northeast portions did not get any rain Thursday, but there were late afternoon showers in those sections this afternoon, and it is raining some tonight.

But the 1936 Legislature failed to appropriate the money and the company finally had to sue and carry the case to the Supreme Court, where it received a judgment in 1948. Three preceding Legislatures failed to approve the payment.

The appropriation caused loud controversy in both houses, and narrowly passed in both cases, surviving an unfavorable committee report in the Senate.

Sen. Louis Mahoney of New Orleans staged an angry walkout during the debate, claiming the governor had threatened to veto New Orleans bills unless the delegation supported the measure.

Two other provisions approved by the Senate committee also headed for floor battles.

One by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) would require mandatory supports for four feed grain crops, oats, rye, barley and grain sorghums, near the level of price supports for corn, the chief feed grain.

Aiken said the secretary of agriculture has been supporting all these feed grains under flexible authority and he contended this system must continue to avoid adding them to other surpluses.

Also in dispute is a provision setting aside 2 1/2 billion dollars worth of surplus cotton, cottonseed oil, wheat and dairy products and making them available for relief, foreign aid and other noncompetitive uses.

Aiken said the set aside was proposed by the administration only as part of the flexible support plan, in an effort to cushion any price declines. Under the flexible support program, price floors would drop when surpluses were large. But the set aside commodities would not be counted as surplus, and thus the price supports would not drop so far, officials say.

The battle for an extension of rigid supports is expected to be led by Sen. Young (R-ND), the no. 2 Republican on the committee. Sen. Ellender (D-La), former chairman and top Democrat on the group, and Sen. Russell (D-Ga), who has handled many farm money bills in past years.

Actually the only crop involved in this is wheat," Aiken said. "Even with a 75 per cent minimum, none of the others would have gone below 85 to 90."

Aiken said he also will fight to hold down supports for butter, cheese, milk and other dairy products at a 75 per cent level. Secretary Benson fixed that level April 1 after mountains of butter, cheese and dried milk had piled up under 90 per cent supports.

The House voted for an 80 per cent support level on dairy products, effective Sept. 1, and the Senate committee by another 8-7 vote asked that they be raised to 85 per cent.

Aiken said any increase above 75 per cent now would wipe out increased consumption of milk, butter and cheese, and again pile up government held stocks.

Woman Hurt In Wreck Last Night

One woman was reported slightly injured last night about 9 p.m. when two cars collided just north of the St. Joseph's Home on the Sterlington Road.

She was identified by her driver's license as Delores Fay Ramsey, of Bogalusa. Hospital attendants at the St. Francis Hospital said she suffered minor lacerations about the neck.

Investigating officers said they did not know how the accident occurred, but that two cars were involved, one driven by the Ramsey woman, and one by a Negro identified as Eugene Davis.

Hospital attendants said there were no other injuries of any consequence that they had found. It is reported that Mrs. Ramsey's husband, three children, and another couple were in the car with her.

General Unopposed For Presidency

SSUNCION, Paraguay, July 9 (UP)—Some 200,000 voters Sunday will elect Gen. Alfredo Stroessner president of Paraguay. There is no other candidate.

The 42-year-old commander of the armed forces will take office Aug. 15 and serve out the four years remaining of the six-year term of President Federico Chaves, overthrown by an army coup d'etat two months ago.

Indian hostilities which led to Custer's last stand in 1876 resulted in part from Indian protests at movements of whites into the Black Hills in one of the last big gold rushes.

Doctor Suspect In Brutal Murder Of Blonde Wife

BAY VILLAGE, Ohio, July 9 (UP)—Police said Friday that Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard was "the No. 1 suspect" for the weekend murder of his pregnant blonde wife, Marilyn.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Rossbach used that term as he led the young osteopath - neurosurgeon through more questions in an effort to find the murderer. Dr. Sheppard, when told by police of their suspicions, answered: "How can you suspect me when we were going to have another baby?"

Dr. Sheppard has a son, Samuel Jr., who is six.

Cuyahoga County Coroner Samuel R. Gerber said he was not fully satisfied with explanations of Dr. Sheppard's activities early last Sunday morning. He asked the young neurosurgeon to repeat his earlier recollections in an effort to clear up the mystery.

Dr. Sheppard led Gerber and other investigators through his lakeside home west of Cleveland to re-enact his version of the events following discovery of his wife's battered body. The trial started from a downstairs living room where Dr. Sheppard slept all night on a couch, up the stairway to the second floor where he said he was struck on the head by the assailant, then into the backyard and to the Lake Erie beach where he said the wrestling-grappling with the murderer continued before he was knocked unconscious.

The young surgeon declined to take a lie detector test on the grounds that his "present emotional state" would not let it give an accurate indication of the truth.

Explains Plans For Institute In Ruston POW Camp

BHREVEPORT, La., July 9 (UP)—Reed Cozart, assistant director of the State Department of Institutions, said here today that recent press dispatches had given an erroneous impression of plans for the new Louisiana correctional institute to be established in the old POW camp near Ruston.

"A mistaken impression exists that all of the inmates of the school for delinquent Negro boys at Scotlandville will be transferred to the institute near Ruston," Cozart said in a statement.

"Actually, only a small percentage of the inmates of the institute will be Negro boys from Scotlandville, and the number of Scotlandville boys at the start will not be more than 10 or 15."

Cozart said virtually all of the inmates at the old POW camp will consist of the older boys of the aggressive type from the Louisiana Training Institute at Monroe, and the younger first-offenders from Angola penitentiary. The few Negro boys from Scotlandville will be of the older, aggressive type, similar to those transferred from Monroe.

5 Teenagers In New Orleans Face Kidnaping Charge

NEW ORLEANS, July 9 (UP)—The district attorney's office today accepted kidnaping charges against five New Orleans teenagers.

Charges of aggravated kidnaping and armed robbery were filed against Miguel Ruiz and Anthony Hernandez, both 17.

Aggravated kidnaping charges were accepted against three juveniles. One of the trio, 15, escaped early today from the detention home. He jumped up from the breakfast table, bolted through a door and fled.

The boys were accused of abducting, threatening and attempting to extort money from Robert Wesley, a 17-year-old bushy, and Sylvia Pidgeon, 22. The couple told police they were walking in the French Quarter early Monday morning when they were accosted by the youths.

Negro Admits Theft Of Woman's Watch

Daniel Harris, 40-year-old Negro, who was taken into custody Thursday night on a charge of theft of a $40 watch, has admitted the theft, Chief of Detectives Hugh L. Tolbert said late yesterday.

The watch is reported to have been stolen from Mrs. Mary Wainwright, at the Morningside Cleaners, on July 3.

Mrs. Wainwright said she left the watch in a washroom and Harris, who was a customer of the cleaners, took it from there, Tolbert said.

Contract Let On Tensas Road Job

FERRIDAY, July 9 (Special)—A contract for construction of two miles of 20-foot wide asphalt cement roadway on State Route 67 has been awarded to L. H. Bossier of Alexandria on a low bid of $60,338. Fred Preaus, highway board chairman announced.

The construction on the Water-proof Highway in Tensas Parish will start at the junction of State Routes 67 and 347, six miles northwest of Waterproof and continue along Route 67 to the junction with State Route 462. The road is expected to be re-opened for traffic by mid-October.

FRENCH FIRE ON REDS IN DELTA AREA—French artillerymen reload their weapon after firing on Vietminh positions near the recently-abandoned Red River Delta communications center of Phu Ly in Indochina. These guns are located at the newly-strengthened fort of Nhay Tuu, lying astride the main route northward toward Hanoi about 6 miles north of Phu Ly. The French and Vietnam troops withdrawn from the Delta area have been added to the Nhay Tuu garrison. (AP Wirephoto)

House Dislocated By Rayville Wind

RAYVILLE, July 9 (Special)—A house belonging to Curtis Tanner, of Richland parish under two miles south of Rayville was blown five feet off its foundation in a violent windstorm at 5 p.m. Thursday. It is reported here. Framework in the house was extensively damaged, and the furniture left in a disheveled state.

There were no reported injuries as a result of the storm, but there was considerable damage to timber—both from broken limbs and uprooting—in an area East of Archibald and in the northwest section of the parish.

House Committee For Pay Hike To Postal Employees

WASHINGTON, July 9 (UP)—Legislation calling for a 5 per cent pay raise for postal workers, with a minimum increase of $200 a year, was approved by the House Post Office Committee today. The action opened the way for a possible pay boost for a million other government employees and a general increase in postal rates.

The measure broke a deadlock that threatened to hold up wage increases for all classified federal workers, numbering about one million. It was advanced as an administration backed compromise yesterday by Chairman Rees (R-Kan.).

Affecting about a half million postal employees directly, it provides authority for the postmaster general to overhaul job and salary schedules in the department and send a reclassification plan to Congress by next March 15.

The reclassification plan, which had been opposed by organized postal groups, would go into effect 60 days after its submission to Congress unless vetoed by either the House or Senate.

The organized postal workers originally had sought an across-the-board raise of $800 a year, with no reclassification. The administration, however, refused to agree to any increase without an accompanying overhaul of the Post Office Department's job and salary setup.

Approval of the compromise measure clears the way for action on a bill raising postal rates 245 million dollars a year, including a penny increase in the cost of mailing letters. This had been caught up in the dispute over wage increases.

Last month the House Post Office Committee, overriding Chairman Rees, approved a 7 per cent across-the-board increase for postal workers with a $240 a year minimum and a $480 maximum. This bill omitted the job reclassification plan requested by the administration, however, and was pigeonholed by the Rules Committee.

U. S. production of seissors reached a peak of $18,555,000 in 1948.

No Charge Filed In $6000 Shortage Of State Account

BILOXI, Miss., July 9 (UP)—Cliff Dildy, ordered to pay a shortage of more than $6,000 in the accounts of the Mississippi Seafood Commission, returned home today after being absent about two months.

The commission secretary reported to Sheriff Ed McDonnell and found that no charges have been filed against him.

State auditor William Neal announced last week there was a shortage of more than $6,000 in the commission's accounts. He called on Dildy to pay the money, plus more than $150 in interest. Unless the money is paid, Neal said, the attorney general's office will be instructed to file suit against Dildy and his bonding company.

Dildy had been missing since the day before the field auditor was scheduled to begin an audit of the commission's books. The audit showed the shortage, Neal said.

The secretary is paid $175 monthly.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Lester Franklin said today Sheriff McDonnell telephoned yesterday that Dildy had returned and asked what to do. Franklin said he advised the sheriff to contact state Rep. Reece Bickerstaff, attorney for the Seafood Commission.

The Federal Civil Defense Administration A Critical Examination

Several recent events of world stature have resulted in the publishing of the editorial you are about to read. The situation overseas has now passed beyond the realm of danger and enters the sphere of disaster. The disaster which can happen will unfortunately unfold before your eyes unless something is done to help the situation.

The key to the peace in Asia has been found and the door to the complete capitulation of that unhappy area of the world is now being opened. It is not being opened by the Americans and their followers (or supposed followers) the French and British, it is being opened by the International Communist conspiracy.

Three weeks ago, it is reliably reported that the Russians were about ready to rush into the war by a slashing assault against Japan. Whether this is or is not true is a matter of speculation. In these days, one must not speculate when the fiery forces of nature are at the disposal of a fanatic enemy. One must operate under the horrifying assumption that the Russians and their associates mean business.

It is a known fact that any war of the future will be a war of indescribable terror on both sides.

The Russians, being a bellicose nation, are obviously in the position of striking first. It is believed that sixty percent or more of their aircraft will get through to an American target area. Moreover, rockets launched by submarines are a definite threat to the seacoast cities and ports. The strike will be effective in a double nature. Submarines and aircraft will strike for a killing blow.

The ability of the American people to come back after such stark terror and tragedy depends clearly on several aspects.

In the first place, the casualty rate—how many Americans are killed or completely disabled. In the second place, the extent of the damage—how will the production of the nation be affected? In the final phase, will the expected Soviet sabotage teams sometimes formed by treacherous Americans be stopped?

These three well timed will not only calculate terror beyond any stretch of the American imagination, they will determine the eventual success or failure of the Soviet Union.

The Soviets can never win a long term war against this nation and they know it better than almost anyone. Either there will be war in the very near, the critically near future, or there will be no war, only a policy of isolation against the U. S. which to the Russians, is a terrible gamble. The ability to counter such an attack, and the ability to recover immediately rests solely in the hands of one agency.

The Federal Civil Defense Administration.

Is the FCDA doing anything about Civil Defense? As the present administration took office, it was not, due to unfortunate political influence. When President Eisenhower took office, he stated clearly that a complete reorganization of FCDA was not only vitally necessary, but would be done immediately. True enough, the FCDA has been reorganized. But the plans are not in keeping with the times. Nationally speaking, the FCDA still deals in terms of the most ancient type atomic weapons. It operates one school at Olney, Maryland. Its training methods are limited by a lack of funds. Val Petersen is a willing and a capable man, but he is completely hamstrung by several factors.

In the first place, each and every state is its own CD boss. It operates Civil Defense as it pleases. Some don't even operate.

The Russian Civil Defense is no joke. There are more than five million Russians keyed up to fever pitch concerning Civil Defense. They are trained and ready to cope with almost anything.

In this nation, the states are divided into districts and the districts into city levels. Each district must receive funds from the county commissions or in the case of this state, the Police Juries of the parishes over which that particular CD district has jurisdiction. The city staffs, which incidentally parallel the district and state staffs (in miniature depending on the city) must derive their resources from the city officials.

City by city, there are vast differences depending upon the city involved. Unfortunately, there are still cities in this state and nation who cannot realize the stark seriousness of the situation. Whether one likes or dislikes Mayor Coon of Monroe, does not matter, this newspaper has worked in close cooperation with the Mayor and the City Council and they have availed themselves magnificently in these times of danger. Alas, there are few other cities with mayors who are civil defense minded.

Therefore, the Monroe Morning World, assuming that under the present circumstances, only an atom bomb from the Soviet Union will change things (which would mean disaster) makes the following recommendation to the Louisiana Office of Civil Defense to be passed on to Administrator Petersen. The World has always fought for the rights of the individual states. It will continue to do so.

It recommends therefore that the President in cooperation with Mr. Petersen, seriously consider making the FCDA into a Department of the Federal Government, the administrator to assume cabinet status. Failing that, put the FCDA directly under the authority of the Defense Department with the present director as Assistant Secretary of Defense for Civil Defense. In that manner, the disorganized but hopeful FCDA could come under one roof.

One possible idea for the states, operating under the Constitution, could be the appointment of the Governors as Civil Defense Directors who could appoint either deputies or Assistants. In this manner, the FCDA would at least know where it was going. Civil Defense is just as important today as is the Army or the Air Force. Perhaps even more so in that it will be responsible for getting the nation on its feet in a time of trial. Funds could be allotted by the Defense Department as they are needed by the states with the states matching half. In that way, at least some

George Sokolsky

THESE DAYS The Reds Do Not Give Up

It is in the nature of the establishment of a universal state that a defeat must not be permitted to be accepted as permanent. The reason for this axiom is that defeats indicate bad planning, bad execution, incorrect analyses of conditions. Whereupon the countries on the periphery of empire look to their possibilities to make up for the failure quickly. Conversely, it was only after the United States was defeated in Korea that country after country became neutralist which is a polite term for an increasing affinity for Russia, the decree not always measurable.

Jacobo Arbenz of Guatemala put the finger on the United States as the author of his disaster. There, for in the logic of history, the United States in Guatemala won a victory over the Soviet Union. State in its first major effort to establish a Communist country on the American continents. There had been previous abortive efforts.

Arbenz said: "Workers, peasants, patriots, friends, people of Guatemala. Guatemala is undergoing a very hard trial. Two weeks ago a cruel war was unleashed against Guatemala; apparently no Government is responsible for it. That does not mean we don't know who unleashed this aggression against our beloved country. The United Fruit Company, the U. S. monopolies, in con- tinuance with U. S. governing circles, are responsible for what is happening to us."

He added: "I say goodbye, my friends, with bitter sorrow, but still firm in my convictions. Preserve what has been so costly, 10 years of struggle, tears, and sacrifices, of democratic gains, are many years to gainsay history. I have not been confuted by the enemy's arguments, but by the material means for the destruction of Guatemala." And he ended with a typical Russian Communist salute:

"With the satisfaction of a man who believes he has done his duty, with faith in the future, I say: Long live the October Revolution! Viva Guatemala!"

The October Revolution which Arbenz salutes is, of course, the seizure of power by the Communists in Russia under Lenin and Trotsky. By this salute Arbenz acknowledges the source of his inspiration. By these words, as ritualistic as standard prayers, he declares himself a Marxist under the tutelage of the Kremlin.

The technique of control and operations of the Arbenz government not only indicates Communist tutelage but the presence of Russian advisers. As evidence of this may be cited the language of the following order, issued on June 25:

"To all Departmental Governors of the Republic, circular:

"Capture at once all anti-Communist mayors and city administration employees who are now members of the Revolutionary Party and who were previously known anti-Communists. Hold them in prison. When you hear the first shot of the attack, shoot them at once. Acknowledge."

"Signed: Cruz, Director General of the Civil Guard."

Now the strategic problem that faces the planners in the Kremlin is how to overcome the effects of this defeat.

1. Shall they institute a diversionary effort, such as eventuated in the Berlin Airlift while they were conquering China?

2. Shall that diversionary effort be on the American continents or elsewhere?

3. Shall they undertake to retake Guatemala by guerrilla warfare, by a state of constant revolution?

4. Shall they abandon the effort in Guatemala and develop a Soviet State in some other American country?

It is not to be forgotten that Guatemala is at least the fourth attempt to develop a Soviet State in the Americas. Constantine Oimansky tried Cuba and Mexico where he failed and died in an airplane crash. British Guiana was the next attempt and it failed because of the swift military action by the British. Guatemala was long in the making as a Communist base and all the evidence concerning it was amply reported to our government by Richard C. Patterson, Jr., when he was our Ambassador to that country (1938-51). In fact, Patterson was relieved of his post because his reports were correct and therefore a nuisance.

Guatemala is geographically a suitable place for a Soviet State, but the likelihood is that operations are already beginning in some other American country.

Lights Over Broadway Stardust

What's the dramatic purpose of having Jose Ferrer in "The Caine Mutiny" make his entrance with a bandaged hand? ... The film reminds you the U. S. Navy never had a mutiny. Are you very sure, Mr. Author? ... A N. Y. Times Sunday writer was horrified by the absurdities of movie censors. Because they yanked "hell" from a scenario ... That's very funny considering his own gazette's bluntness about the same word from a theatrical ad ... Add Skewps: H. Bogart's elegant center name is DeForest. (Dwop dat gat Humphrey DeForest!) ... Man, jazz looters are the Crazezeest. Current clang-clang recordings have such monickers as "Ergo," "Back-hanal" and "Pro DeFunctus." Dig it? ... Actress Pier Angeli's confession: "I always feel just terrible when I know I'm going to do a love scene." (Music Cue: "Pier Butterfly.")

Remarkable Remarks: Dorothy Dandridge: "There's never been a good actress who couldn't register sex appeal if the role called for it."

O, come now, Dorothy. That makes as much sense as saying every good looking gal can act!

Kathryn Murray was asked: "Is there any difference between a dancer and a choreographer?" ... "A dancer," explained Arthur's wife, "gets muscles in her legs. A choreographer gets muscles in his head." ... At the Murray's 43rd Street studio is this sign: "To Executive Offices. Dance Up One Flight!" ... Eddie Fisher's "Green Years" passed the 650,000 mark, already. His 17th consecutive record click ... The 4 Tunes' latest platter, "The Greatest Feeling in the World," rates a plug ... Cadillac's the name of a bike, too ... Remember the swaggle line about Hollywood boredom: "No matter how hot it gets in the daytime there's no place to go at night?" ... It's in "Mrs. Leslie," a good tear-jerker starring Shirley Booth. ("G'bye Mr. Leslie, honey") ... People Today mag says Russia's new secret weapon is s-e-x. (Bang! Bang! You're Deaded!)

Ida Lupino's proclamation—about directing herself again in a cinema: "Oh, Sweetie, I don't ever want to do that again. I'm an actress who needs a director. It's just too tough to direct yourself." Don't you sweetie me!

Paulette Goddard's lament: "A woman should not make a career out of work. All she will end up is as a secretary and a book of How-to-a male sekkatary?"

money sent to Washington could come back home to be of assistance.

The District and City directors could be appointed by the Governors and approved by the Defense Department only after they had undergone some degree of training. Lack of qualified personnel is a deterring factor today.

These are perhaps idle thoughts, but they are hopeful thoughts.

Unless something happens in the very near future, the need for Civil Defense as an American rural proposition, might never materialize.

TOMORROW is tomorrow, and ... It cannot be today ... Until our thoughts and actions ... Our words are put away ... And when tomorrow comes around ... Today is in the past ... Security

There is a good deal of talk these days about security. There is social security which means money for use in old age; there is security in jobs which means that a job belongs to the worker no matter what comes or goes; and there is security of the spirit which means insurance against the ills of life, a faith that makes for strength to face life's tragedies.

The accent seems always to be placed on the securities of the material world and anybody who gives the matter a second thought knows that there can be no security in them. The moth and the rust can, and often does, corrupt them—the moth of Time, the rust of disaster, and where is security? Only in the spirit can it be found. Surely then, we should teach children that fundamental law of life and give them something to stand on in the evil day that comes to us all.

Somewhat we seem afraid to do this. Doubt seems to cloud faith and yet faith is what we live by. Consciously or unconsciously we go trusting in something beyond our understanding, beyond all knowing, or we could not go on. When trouble strikes, doubt fades and faith winned by hope takes over. We somehow find strength, somehow a way opens, somehow we manage to go on with the day's work, believing that things will be for our good because God and His goodness prevails. We must teach children that faith.

There is not much sense in implanting a thought that has no outlet in action, so we teach that faith in the good life must be strengthened by work that leads toward the end we have in mind. What that end is rests with us. If it is selfish, based on material gains, expressed in terms of getting and holding for the sake of a mythical security, it will never satisfy a single soul among us. If the work leads to spiritual strength, to the creation of a beautiful and satisfying way of daily living, it will bring the only possible security: humanity can enjoy.

It is difficult in these days of war, doubt, fear, to hold on to our faith in the rightness and goodness of the spirit, but hard as it may be, it is our only hope of peace and content. This spiritual endowment is the best we can give our children and youth and today is the day to bestow it.

IN WASHINGTON They Follow Knowland

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is on the skids again, but President Eisenhower will not acknowledge it and the present prospect does not indicate that Dulles will resign soon.

Instead, the president is reported to be enraged over the threat of Senator William F. Knowland (Rep.-Cal.) to resign his majority leadership if Red China is admitted to the United Nations. Reports from the White House are that the president would like to kick Knowland off "the team," but that is not among his prerogatives.

It can be put down as certain that should Knowland resign he would be promptly re-elected just as Senator Allen W. Barkley, then senate majority leader, was when he quit in a break with President Franklin D. Roosevelt over a wartime tax bill. The Democrats not only re-elected Barkley but senate and house passed the tax bill over the presidential veto.

The Knowland blow-up has been brewing for some time. It reflects a feeling of a number of Republican and Democratic senators. Their confidence in Dulles is at a low ebb. They say that while he has spoken out strongly before senate committees and in speeches he has been weak in conferences with the British and French. Some of them had come away from private talks with Dulles convinced that he is resigned to the eventual admission of Mao's government to the United Nations.

With a red hot congressional campaign ahead many Republicans know how strong a factor the feeling against the Pelting government could be when the nation goes into the voting booths. There is a feeling in congress also that the president is strongly against Red China's admission to the U. N., but that he will take the unequivocal position they think he needs to take and leans too heavily on Dulles in the carrying out of international negotiations.

Knowland perhaps has a more graphic understanding of what recognition of Red China would mean to the United States than most members of the administration. He knows it would bring about liquidation of Chiang Kai Shek and his army of 400,000 men and loss of Formosa. More than that, Knowland believes it would amount to an acknowledgement that the white race has no further rights in Asia. He has convinced a number of his colleagues that is true, and that lack of decision on the part of Eisenhower and Dulles might let the situation drift to where our Allies would ram Red China down our throat, despite the fact that she is still branded an aggressor by the United Nations.

Senator Lyndon Johnson (Dem.-Tex.) senate minority leader, has joined Knowland in his stand. He and Knowland do not want the U. S. to leave the United Nations but they do not believe that, with the Asiatic Communists forced into the body over U. S. opposition, that the United Nations could longer be useful to this country.

Observing the attitudes of Eisenhower and Dulles, Knowland and other senators are convinced that Dulles follows his own convictions, whether they agree with the president's generalizations on foreign policy or not. For example, when the president gave his illustration of the stack of dominoes and said if one fell they all fell, Dulles in a subsequent press conference said that was not necessarily so though he did not contradict the president directly.

The recent conference between Sir Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden and Dulles and the president seems to have been the final straw for Knowland and those who believe as he does. They believe the reports from that meeting strongly intimated that Britain would join the U. S. in withholding approval of Red China's entry until after the November elections, but gave no assurance beyond that, which is taken to mean that the U. S. will stand alone among the great powers in its opposition.

There is now question but that a majority of both parties in the senate, the great American forum on foreign affairs will follow Knowland if he forces a test on the matter of Red China. And if Red China were admitted before the November election, Republican chances to carry congress would go out the window.

Knowland hasn't been a popular majority leader. There has been an emphatic talk about replacing him in the next congress, possibly with Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois.

WASHINGTON—As of today, the 1954 race for control of the Senate looks like a photo finish, according to a survey by Congressional Quarterly.

The odds are with the Republicans, who now have a one-vote margin, chiefly because they have only 15 seats on the election block this year. The Democrats have 22.

In the 37 regular Senate contests to be decided in November, 21 seats should stay in the same party, the CQ roundup shows. Seven of these are solidly Republican and 14 are pretty firmly Democratic, so the battle for Senate control narrows down to 16 "hot" races. That's the consensus of top political leaders and specialists of both parties, in Washington and in the field.

Of these 16 key Senate seats, each party now controls eight.

But the politicians are in general agreement that, at this point, Republicans have the edge in five of the hot races, while Democrats are leading in only four. In all nine of these races, it's the party holding the seat which has the best chance to keep it.

Outcome is uncertain in contests for four "doubtful" seats now held by Democrats—in Colorado, Delaware, Montana and Ohio—and three held by Republicans—in Kentucky, New Jersey and Wyoming.

Here is the lineup of the 21 seats that the CQ survey shows are likely to remain in control of the same party:

Solidly Republican, seven: Kansas, Maine, Nebraska (two), New Hampshire (two) and South Dakota.

Solidly Democratic, 12: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina (two), Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

Considered almost certainly Democratic, two: Rhode Island and West Virginia.

Although Nebraska has been solidly Republican since 1910, the deaths this year of both Sen. Dwight Griswold (R) and Hugh Butler (R) might set the stage for political upset.

The personal popularity of the candidates running for the Senate will be a major factor in the 1954 elections since there is no Presidential contest to eclipse the other offices on the ticket.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R, N.H.), President pro-tem of the Senate and Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D, Tex.), Democratic floor leader, are conceded re-election. Sen. Homer Ferguson (R, Mich.), Chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R, Mass.), assistant Republican floor leader, are given the edge in the battles to keep their seats.

Of four Democratic aspirants for the 1952 Presidential nomination, only Sen. Richard B. Russell (D, Ga.) is conceded re-election to the Senate without a fight. Sen. Estes Kefauver (D, Tenn.) and Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D, Okla.) have tough primary fights and former Vice President Alben W. Barkley, a bitter contest in November.

Most of the Republicans running for the Senate are eager for the support of President Eisenhower who ran "way ahead of his ticket" two years ago. But only two incumbents seeking re-election, Saltonstall and Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R, Ky.), were pre-convention Eisenhower supporters in 1952.

The "battling average" of the Eisenhower Administration is expected to be a big issue in the Senate races along with Communism in government, foreign policy, farm income, taxes, and unemployment. Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R, Wis.), who is not up for re-election, is also likely to be an issue in the campaign.

CAPITOL QUOTES

Excerpts from House debate June 16 on a proposed Labor Surplus Disposal bill amendment to use foreign currencies obtained from sales abroad to "bring 'cultural items' to the U. S. (Congressional Record, p. 7935):

Rep. James C. Davis (D, Ga.)—"What are some of the cultural items or services... the gentleman has in mind?"

Rep. James G. Fulton (R, Pa.)—"I would cite as one example music... an outstanding violinist... We should have such cultural additions brought back for our public institutions, such as museums."

Rep. H. R. Gross (R, Iowa)—"I doubt that we need to use these funds to import long-haired violinists to come in and give us a song and dance out in Iowa."

Two special courses of instruction will be held for prospective voting commissioners in the forthcoming July 27 Democratic primary, and it is mandatory each commissioner to attend one of the sessions on July 21. Burt W. Sperry, chairman of the Ouachita parish Democratic committee, said yesterday.

Sperry said that the courses, which will be held at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m., will familiarize commissioners and deputies with the use of the voting machine, scheduled to be used for the first time in the July 27 election.

He said a certificate will be presented to those attending, and by state law each commissioner and deputy must hold one. About 400 commissioners, deputies and alternates have been appointed, he said.

The courses will be held at Neville high school. He also stated that a new precinct system is being established for the parish, with 20 of the 69 parish precincts being eliminated and consolidated with others. The voting machine makes this consolidation possible, because a voting precinct station can handle a larger number of voters with the machines.

Precinct boundaries will be published in forthcoming issues of the Monroe News-Star, official journal of the police jury. The police jury is responsible for the arrangement of voting precincts of the parish. Sperry urged voters to study the published lists in order to ascertain where they will vote July 27.

Sperry also said that every effort is being made to put voting stations in public buildings, to eliminate the use of private garages.

Detectives Arrest Youth For Burglary

Teofilo Longoria, 19, was taken into custody late Thursday night by Detective Floyd Van and Deputy Bill Causey, and charged with the simple burglary of an automobile at the Triangle Service Station on June 30, the Ouachita Parish Sheriff's Department reported yesterday.

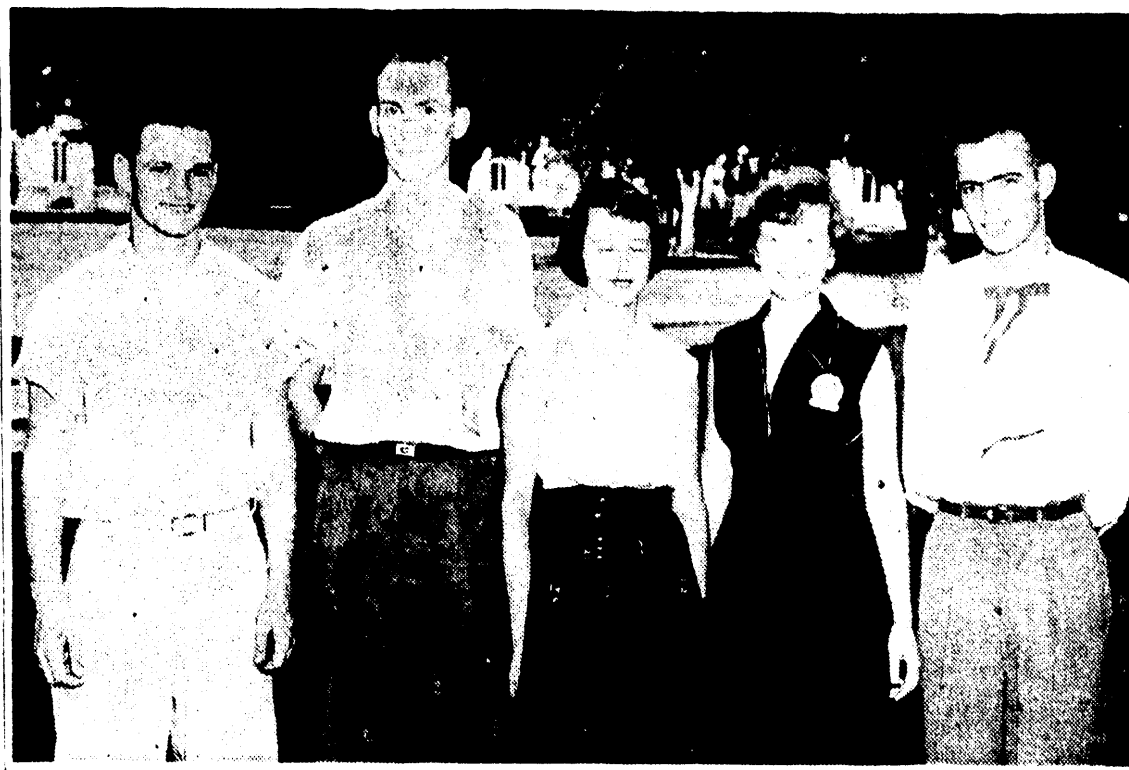

Longoria is charged with taking a tire and wheel out of a 1941 Chevrolet at the Sterling station.

In connection with the same burglary, a Sterling juvenile is also being held. He is the same juvenile who was taken into custody recently at Texarkana, Tex., in connection with two burglaries and an auto theft, and returned to Monroe by Van and Causey.

Ellis Assails Sen. Ellender On Tidelands

NEW ROADS, La., July 9 (P)—Frank B. Ellis, candidate for U.S. Senator, today criticized his opponent, Sen. Allen J. Ellender, for giving "little or no aid in Louisiana's fight to regain control of her tidelands."

Ellis said Ellender "is correct in saying he voted twice for the tidelands bill, but that is all that he did."

Senator Ellender explained that he had twice voted for the tidelands bill, despite assertions of Bolivar Kemp, former Louisiana attorney general, that the senator had rendered little or no help to the state in its long hard won fight to obtain return of its tidelands.

"Mr. Kemp has charged that Senator Ellender refused to cooperate with Louisiana officials in their fight and by personal investigation I found that the senator attended but one of many, many important meetings and conferences which were held during the years Louisiana was fighting shoulder to shoulder with other coastal states to regain their tidelands."

Earlier at Krotz Springs, Ellis charged that Ellender had threatened to curb the freedom of the press, and had voted against a 10 million dollar appropriation for the free school lunch program introduced by Sen. Russell Long (D-La.).

The North Louisiana Rodeo and Horseshow Association announced last night that September 6 through 10 had been set for the Ninth Annual championship rodeo to be held at West Monroe arena.

It was pointed out that plans are being made by the West Monroe Businessmen's Association, Kiwanis Club and Rodeo Association for the largest rodeo ever produced in north Louisiana.

Of widespread interest to riding clubs and rodeo enthusiasts in this section, will be the first presentation of a North Louisiana rodeo queen which will be selected from entries representing each town and a chuck wagon supper which are being sponsored by the West Monroe Businessmen.

Homer Todd of Fort Smith, Ark., one of the rodeo circuit's largest producers, will provide stock for the annual R.C.A. approved rodeo.

Todd, who opened the West Monroe arena in 1945, will again bring his white parade horses to add color to the Labor Day parade. Announcing the show this year will be Floyd Watts, well-known rodeo announcer, of Tulsa, Okla. A variety of new rodeo acts, clowns and performers have been booked by the Rodeo Association for the 1954 show.

Riding clubs throughout the area are being invited to participate in the opening parade and grand entry each night.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

No Need For Tense Hurry While You Are Lying Down

We waste an awful lot of energy hurrying while standing, sitting down, and even lying down. You can lie down and think of the things you must do tomorrow and plan how you will get them all in, and find yourself hurrying while flat on your back. You have unconsciously tensed up nervously and tightened your muscles.

When you are rushing for an appointment and running a bit late, or when you are waiting in an outer office for one and have other appointments following the one you are waiting for, you may expend huge sums of energy hurrying while sitting down.

This is most natural and it takes quite a bit of practice to put a stop to this leak in energy. Actually these moments can be used for short periods of relaxation. If you are in a taxi or on a subway or bus, you will not get to your destination one minute sooner because you feel tense and are trying to push the bus or car or subway along with your own hurry.

Learn the trick of going limp and taking such opportunities as a time for relaxation rather than tension. When you wait for an appointment, when on your way to or from an engagement, when waiting for a late guest, "stewing" will exhaust you while limpingness will renew you. There are so many opportunities like this during the course of a day.

You can also use lost moments for self-improvement if you wish. When sitting, pull your abdomen in toward your backbone and hold it there while you count to ten slowly. Relax and repeat several times. This is a splendid abdominal exercise. When standing, waiting for a bus, pull your legs together trying to make them touch their full length. Hold them while you count to ten. This is the best corrective exercise I know for bowlegs.

Learn to save energy by using those lost moments for relaxation or self-improvement.

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 28, "Gymnastics While You Wait," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of Morning World.

Fruit Company In Agreement To End Walkout

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UP)—Representatives of the United Fruit Co. and 25,000 striking workers reached tentative agreement today for ending the two-month-old walkout that has crippled the company's banana operations in northern Honduras.

Both sides expressed hope the agreement could be signed later today and work resumed Monday. The agreement must be approved by the full central strike committee before it can be signed.

Spokesmen for the two sides said the tentative agreement called for wage boosts of from 5 to 21 percent. The rise would push the minimum wage up 36 cents, from $1.68 to $2.04 for an 8-hour day.

The strikers left their jobs April 30 demanding increases of from 30 to 72 percent, time and a half for overtime and improved hospital services.

A company spokesman said the agreement "is a compromise worked out by all parties." Representatives of the company, strikers, the government mediation board and other government departments took part in the final negotiating

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: My first year at high school was most unhappy, due chiefly to the attitude of my classmates. I am wondering if there's anything I can do to improve matters next year. I don't think I could stand another year like my freshman one. There are two widely different groups of girls in our school—one tries to run everything, and the other takes things easier, but has unfortunately acquired quite a bad reputation. The latter happens to be the crowd with whom I associated. I don't like the way we're talked about, and would be much happier in the other group, but they're so snobbish they won't accept everyone.

showing me how to get along with the right people will be appreciated.

I've always been pretty popular with both boys and girls, so it's difficult for me to understand why I don't have the right friends at school. My parents will not let me date, but I do meet boys on the sly, usually at the show. The reason I'm appealing to you for advice is that I can't talk about the question to my father and mother. Any help you can offer in showing me how to get along with the right people will be appreciated.

M. C.

ANSWER: Your first step up the ladder of social success at school, paradoxically, is to stop trying so desperately to be tops with everyone. It's much, much better to be popular or well liked by even two or three of the right people, than to have token popularity with a large group of the wrong ones. You'll enjoy the friendship of the latter just so long as you serve their purpose—then, fuis.

DROP UNDESIRABLE COMPANIONS

With three years of high school ahead, you're making a wise move in trying to get yourself adjusted now. Over the summer you can begin separating yourself from the undesirable companions; just don't be available if they call you for dates. It might mean a few lonely days, or even weeks, but measured against the success of the next three years, isn't it worth it? Be pleasant, but not assertive, to the girls and boys of the other group. If they're engaged in any projects during the summer months, offer your help. When the new school year opens, try to take courses preferred by the students you like. Almost certainly you'll find these subjects involve more work than the others, but again, isn't it worth the effort to be with the contacts you want? If your difficulties continue, do consult a faculty advisor who will show you more directly how to get the most out of your high-school years. Don't be afraid to approach your teachers with problems; most of them are teaching because they like young people.

Last, and most important of all, stop "sneak" dating. Perhaps Mom and Dad are a bit unreasonable about letting you go out, but as you become more responsible, they'll become more lenient. Dating on the sly is the surest way to lose the trust of your parents and the respect of your schoolmates.

DEAR MISS DIX: I'm a widow, 25, with a 4-year-old child. Last year I met Sam, who is in the Navy, and we were very much attracted to each other. At first I saw him every day. Then his ship left, and though I wrote frequently, he did not reply. When he came home he called me once. Since then, he dates me once or twice when he's in port, and writes occasionally when he's away. I like him very much and would like to see him more often.

Ginger

ANSWER: The man certainly doesn't show any signs of being seriously interested in you, Ginger. Your efforts to win him will more than likely be useless. He just isn't around enough for you to impress him.

DEAR MISS DIX: I've been going with a girl for two years. Recently she broke off, claiming I wasn't working and couldn't support her if we did marry. I think her family has interfered between us.

B. G.

ANSWER: If her contention is true, and you won't work, she's a very wise girl to break off. Don't give all the credit to her family.

Austrian Floods Cause 11 Deaths; Damage Is Heavy

VIENNA, Austria, July 9 (UP)—The worst flood in more than 50 years left 11 persons dead, thousands of farms under water and compelled the evacuation of more than 70 villages in Austria and southern Germany today.

At least six persons were known to be missing in the Danube watershed. Damage to crops, homes and factories was estimated to run into the millions of dollars.

U.S. military forces, including 21 helicopters, were aiding Austrian and German rescue operations along the banks of the normally peaceful Danube River and a dozen of its tributaries. Army bulldozers also helped.

The Danube was 30 feet above normal at some points. Many farmhouses along its banks were up to their roofs in water. Several villages were approachable only by boat.

Germany-based helicopters of the U.S. Army and Air Force battled wind, rain and poor visibility to lift stranded victims to safety from rooftops and trees. At Eggenfeld, near Passau, the Army sent 10 boats to rescue marooned residents.

A few miles from Passau, a 10-yard wide hole was blasted in a 300-yard long dam near the giant new Jochenstein power station. The dam held back the waters of the Danube from a construction site, but the rising waters threatened houses and the major installations of the power station. Engineers decided to sacrifice the construction work for the general safety of the area.

On the Austrian side of the frontier, villages for 60 miles south-east of Passau were evacuated as the Danube climbed as much as nine inches an hour.

At Linz, where a half dozen tributaries, including the Traun, the Voeckla, and the Enns, pour into the Danube, the flood danger was described as disastrous.

The villages of Feldkirchen, Goldwirth and Ottersheim were deep under water. The raging waters smashed through the windows of farmhouses and carried out chairs and tables.

The villages were deserted. They had been evacuated during the night. Fearful women were torn from their homes and possessions by police.

Crop Production May Run Close To '53 Record Yield

WASHINGTON, July 9 (UP)—An Agriculture Department report indicated today crop production this year may approach last year's near record volume despite efforts of the government—loaded with farm surpluses—to get a sizable cut in output.

A survey of crop prospects as of July 1 showed, the department said, that the fourth largest volume of all crops is now in prospect. The harvest, the agency said, may be at least 102 per cent of the 1947-49 base compared with last year's volume of 108 per cent of the base.

Farm officials, already concerned over six billion dollars of surpluses piled up under price support programs, had urged but did not require, an overall reduction of at least 5 per cent in the base volume.

Big crops were indicated for corn, oats, barley, flaxseed, rice, hay, dry beans, soybeans and sugar beets.

The survey indicated that much of the land devoted from wheat and cotton under surplus control programs had been planted to other crops, such as oats, barley, flaxseed, sorghums and soybeans rather than to grass and other non cash crop uses as the department had recommended.

Two Tornadoes Damage Homes In Arkansas Areas

By UNITED PRESS

Two twisters, one described as a genuine, black-funnelled tornado, left Arkansas today with unroofed houses and uprooted trees but no injuries.

The tornado struck yesterday at Haw Creek, Ark., some three miles west of Waldron Ark. It cut a path a mile long, unroofing houses, outhouses and barns and pulling up trees.

The other twister hit England, Ark. It tore the roof off a lumber yard office and damaged several other buildings.

Flaxseed, sorghums and soybeans rather than to grass and other non cash crop uses as the department had recommended.

The department said the total acreage now planned for harvest is larger than last year and virtually the same as in 1952, when a big acreage was harvested. The corn crop, if realized, would be the second largest of record.

Three-fourths of all U. S. bank employees are machine operators or other crops, such as oats, barley, flaxseed, sorghums and soybeans rather than to grass and other non cash crop uses as the department had recommended.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

THE MARQUEE

T.V. — STAGE — RADIO — RECORDS — PEOPLE

By DICK KLEINER

Norman Granz' Jazz World

The Record Shop: In the jazz realm, one of the most ambitious recording projects is Norman Granz' monumental task of putting "The Genius of Art Tatum" on record. The first five albums in this series are just out, and they are things of beauty, Granz says he hopes, eventually, to have 150 Tatum piano solos in the set, which would make a shelf of around 20 albums. After you finish listening to them, they'd be dandy for pressing flowers — say jazzmize.

This may be hard to believe, but the gal who is the best-selling singer on albums has just made her very first single record. She's Joan Roberts, who sang the female lead in "Oklahoma!" That was the original original cast album, selling over a million copies the first year and still selling today.

"I got a nice substantial check every once in a while," says Joan, a pretty blonde in a summery dress.

But, despite that success and other big selling show albums, she simply never got around to making any single records. Until now. On a brand new label, Quality, she's recorded a lovely ballad called "Never Alone." The title comes from a book she wrote, her "sort-of autobiography."

"I always wanted to write," she says. "I've got some short stories and a novel in a drawer at home. I haven't got the courage to submit them, though. I'll have to see how 'Never Alone' does, first."

Joan, despite her youthful appearance, has been in show business quite a few years. In the old, or pre - "Oklahoma!" days, she sang in nightclubs. She still shudders when she thinks of those seamy, sordid nights — "you only see one side of life and men in nightclubs — just the men who pinch and heckle."

Then came her first Broadway show, "Sunny River," and then the big hit and a whole procession of lesser hits. She's been in 35 musicals — It makes me sound so ancient to say it. She looks far from ancient.

"But I managed to live through show business," she says, "and still keep my faith — and my center of gravity."

Angel, whose slick foreign recordings are the handiest packages in the industry, seems to have brought forth a new classical star, too. He's Gerz And, a 33-year-old Hungarian pianist who has turned in three sensational recorded performances since his British debut only last March. Latest is Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 in B-flat Minor, in which he's accompanied by the Philharmonia Orchestra led by Alceo Galliera. Already listed among the choice are his readings of Rachmaninoff's Concerto No. 2 in C-Minor and Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Paganini. Among Angels, his is the hottest halo.

Hot Springs Shades Twin Cities In Mound Duel, 2-1

Ed White Limits Sports To 4 Hits; Strickler Gives 6

Outfielder Jack Bridges hit singles in the first and eighth innings that drove home both Hot Springs runs as the revamped Bathers shaded the Twin Cities Sports, 2 to 1, in the opener of a Cotton States League series here last night. The rival clubs are scheduled to meet again here tonight at 8 o'clock.

Ed White, a right-hander making his first start for the Bathers, choked off the Sports with only four hits to get the best of Len "Red" Strickler, the hard luck right-hander of the Twin Cities staff who gave up only six singles and didn't walk a batter in the fast contest that was over in an hour and 37 minutes.

The "snake-bit" Strickler, who took his fifth loss against four wins, couldn't get the necessary support at bat to pull the game out of the fire although the Sports, held to two hits for eight innings, threatened in the ninth when they spoiled White's shutout after two were out.

Frank Marinkovich dropped Leon Akers' fly into left center field in the first inning to set Akers up at second base from where he scored on Bridges' poke into left field.

Strickler then mowed the Sports down until the eighth when Tom Burks led off with a single, Rocky Burks went down on a fly to C. J. Fontana in right field, and White forced Burks at second. But Akers delivered a rifle smash straight at Strickler that forced the Sports pitcher to hit the dirt as the ball powered on into center field.

Bridges then followed with a single into right field that got away from Fontana. White scored and Bridges pulled up at second with Akers on third. Frank Cooper asked to Marinkovich to end the threat of more Bather runs.

White retired the first two Twin Cities batters in the ninth on fly balls and then issued a free pass to Paul Flores, the second walk of the night by the Hot Springs pitcher. Fontana singled Flores to third, and Marinkovich drove him home with a single that set Fontana up at third. But Bob Norden went down swinging and the rally threat was over.

The revamped Bathers appeared on the scene with only six of the 16 players who were with them on their last trip here when they dropped a third-game series to the Sports, and catcher Jackie Bales was at the helm as manager since the Spa owners had fired Lou Lucas as skipper Thursday night.

Movie Actress Charged With Hit-And-Run Death

LOS ANGELES, July 9—UP—Actress Lynn Baggett, estranged wife of wealthy movie producer Samuel Spiegel, surrendered Friday to police in the hit-run death of a nine-year-old boy.

The actress was located in downtown Los Angeles after stage and screen actor George Tobias identified the car police said was involved in the accident as belonging to him. The actor said he had loaned the vehicle to Miss Baggett, a longtime friend.

When brought to police headquarters, Miss Baggett was highly nervous and said, "I'm very sorry but I'm not permitted to talk on instructions from my attorney."

She was taken to city jail and there booked by police on a charge of felony hit-run driving. The actress was booked under her legal name of Lynn Spiegel and gave her age as 27.

Victim of the hit-run accident was Joel Watnick. The boy was riding in a station wagon last Wednesday night with a half-dozen other persons when it was struck by a car that stopped momentarily. A blond woman got out and then jumped back into the small car and drove off.

Negroes On Bond After Knife Fight

Two Negroes were free on bond last night after being arrested Friday morning following a fight on Trenton Street in West Monroe, Chief of Police Jeff Caldwell reported.

Pearlie Harris, 35, 106 Cherry, and Layman Ethridge, 41, 725 Coleman, were freed on bonds of $150 and $50 respectively.

The woman is charged with drawing and displaying a dangerous weapon, a knife, and the man is charged with disturbing the peace.

Caldwell said the pair got into an argument about 7 a.m. Friday, and the Harris woman slashed Ethridge slightly with a knife. He was treated by a physician for his injuries.

British Favor Rearmament Of West Germany

LONDON, July 9—UP—Britain wants a West German army organized within the framework of the North Atlantic alliance if France does not ratify the European Defense Community setup by fall, authoritative sources said Friday.

The report of Britain's preference as an alternative to EDC came at the end of a week of talks on Germany between American and British diplomats. They will report to their governments. The next move is up to France.

The talks stemmed from the declaration by President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Winston Churchill that West Germany "should take its place as an equal partner in the community of western nations, where it can make its proper contribution to the defense of the free world."

The United States was understood to have proposed no alternative to EDC, awaiting the possibility of French approval of the interlocking scheme on which the sovereignty of West Germany depends.

Authoritative sources said the British diplomats had voiced the opinion that the only sensible alternative to EDC, albeit an inferior one, was the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

They argued that France could not stand against the wishes of the 13 other NATO members, the informants said. On the other hand, the U.S. delegates were said to have pointed out weaknesses of NATO, where there would be few controls on a German national army.

The U.S. experts were said to have agreed with the British that a revised European army would be nothing more than a little NATO within the big NATO, and probably would cause more trouble to the setup than it would be worth.

But some responsible quarters suggested that the United States

WASHINGTON, July 9—UP—The pilot's failure to check weather conditions contributed to the Louisiana airplane crash in which airline president Thomas Braniff and other prominent Texans and Louisianans perished last Jan. 10, the Civil Aeronautics Board said today.

The CAB also noted that the weather meteorologist at Shreveport failed to draw a Memphis forecast of icing, conditions to the attention of tower personnel at the Shreveport airport, and that the forecaster at New Orleans "did not amend his forecast for better accuracy."

The board, in an accident investigation report, said the probable cause of the accident was the rapid accumulation of so much wing ice that the twin-engine grumman amphibian could no longer maintain altitude.

The plane crashed in marshland 10 miles southeast of the Shreveport airport while returning the men from a private duck hunting camp at Lower Mud Lake, La., 190 miles southeast of Shreveport.

The board could find no indication of any malfunctioning of the plane or its engines. It said the craft probably had enough fuel to have flown to any one of several airports or water areas with an ice-free approach.

It also noted that the plane was not equipped with wing or windshield de-icers.

Twelve persons, including Braniff, president of Braniff Airways, died in the crash.

The others killed were: R. H. Hargrove of Shreveport, Chris Abbott of Iyanville, Neb., Edgar Tobin of San Antonio, Tex., Justin R. Querbes Sr., of Shreveport, and Randolph Querbes Sr., of Shreveport, brother of Justin.

E. Bernard Weiss of Shreveport, Milton Weiss of Dallas, brother of E. Bernard, J. P. Evans of Shreveport, John B. Atkins of Shreveport, Buddy Huddleston of Houma, La., pilot, and Louis Schexnaydre, pilot, also of Houma.

Work Out Answer Before Peeking

How should you play today's hand at a contract of six spades against a heart opening lead? Decide on your own line of play before reading on.

When the hand was actually played, South won the first trick in his own hand with the king of hearts and then laid down the ace of spades. This was a fatal error.

South could count on winning only five tricks in the side suits. He therefore needed a total of seven trump tricks in order to make his contract.

South must ruff twice in the dummy in order to win seven trump tricks, but he cannot afford to ruff with dummy's honors.

South struggled on manfully for a long time, but he eventually lost queen of spades, discovering the bad news. Now you cash the king and ace of diamonds, after which you ruff a diamond with one of dummy's low trumps. You return to your hand by way of the king of hearts and lead your last diamond towards the dummy.

If West discards, you can ruff with dummy's remaining small trump. It is then easy to cash the jack of spades and get to your hand with the ace of clubs in order to draw the rest of the trumps. If West trumps the fourth diamond, you can overruff in dummy and draw trumps with even greater ease. Either way, West cannot defeat the slam contract.

Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been:

North East South West
1 Dmd. Double Redbl. 1 Heart
Pass Pass ?

You, South, hold: Spades K-5, Heart 6, Diamonds K-Q-J-7-3, Clubs A-J-9-8-2. What do you do?

A—Bid four diamonds. Since your distribution is very unbalanced, you are not interested in game at no-trump. North will surely go on to game or slam, depending on the strength of his hand.

Today's Question
The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-5-3, Hearts none, Diamonds K-Q-J-7-3, Clubs K-Q-9-8-2. What do you do?

3 Governors Urge Ike To Permit Limited Trade By Japan With Red Chinese

WASHINGTON, July 9 —UP—Three state governors recommended to President Eisenhower Friday that Japan be permitted to engage in limited and controlled trade with Red China to prevent the former enemy nation from going Communist.

The governors also urged Mr. Eisenhower to "rush" construction of a vast air raid warning system in the Pacific and Far West to prevent future atomic "pearl harbors" at the hands of the Communists.

The governors, reporting to the President on a Far Eastern survey, denied that their recommendations on Japanese trade implied any recognition of the Chinese Communist government. They warned that Japan will be forced to turn to communism if it is not allowed to build up its economy.

They said Japan also should be encouraged to increase its trade with other non-Communist nations. The governors, who made a special trip to Korea and Japan at Mr. Eisenhower's request, were Dan Thornton of Colorado, John Fine of Pennsylvania and Allan Fine of New York.

The governors recommended that "there be rushed to completion"

Costs Submitted On Diversion Of Colorado Stream

WASHINGTON, July 9 —UP—The Senate Interior committee estimated Friday it will take about 70 years to repay the costs of the $172,898,000 Frying Pan-Arkansas reclamation project in Colorado.

The estimate was made in a formal report putting a bill to authorize the project before the Senate. The project would divert water from the Roaring Fork Basin of western Colorado for irrigation and municipal use in southeastern Colorado.

Of the total project cost $23,171,000 will be borne by the federal government for flood control and fish and wildlife benefits. Power revenues will repay about $103 million of the remainder, with water sales yielding the rest.

They said they heard a common complaint from American military forces in Okinawa, Korea, and Japan. They said both privates and high-ranking officers complained that the Air Force, Navy, Army and Marines have different service periods that cause serious morale and personnel problems.

"We suggest and recommend that the period of service for all branches of the military be made the same," they said.

Jack Pot Quiz Held By Theater Is Ruled Legal

BATON ROUGE, July 9 (AP)—A "jack pot quiz" held by a drive-in theater with cash prizes and no requirement to buy tickets appears legal, the attorney general's office said today.

Theater bank nights have been held in violation of the laws against lotteries, the opinion by assistant attorney general M. E. Culligan read:

"However, I find no Louisiana jurisprudence covering the situation where any person can become the holder of a ticket without paying . . . and share in the prize awarded by chance."

Culligan said attorney general rulings have held that a lottery involves some "consideration" by the player.

State police attorney Elven Ponder requested the ruling in connection with a proposed drive-in "jack pot quiz" in which the individual could receive a jack pot ticket free without buying a ticket and didn't have to be present at the drawing.

In another opinion, Culligan said a merchant plan to give a customer a coupon to share in cash prizes was illegal.

Minden city attorney Cecil Lowe had asked the opinion for a local newspaper advertising campaign.
